25X1A 7. (Confidential - LLM) Accompanied [] WH Division, 25X1A
25X1A who used the name of [], to a meeting with []
25X1A []. The arrangements were made following a call from Repre-
25X1A sentative Robert Sikes (D., Fla.) to General Walters. [] two princi-25X1A pal concerns were (1) his secretary's immigration from Cuba (it was agreed
25X1A that the Agency would check out the various legal means for her immigration 25X1A once he provides certain details which he will do in the next week or so), and 25X1A (2) gaining the release of political prisoners in Cuba (he believes they are a 25X1A vexing problem for Castro and that Castro would like to find a solution; []
25X1A intends to do some hard thinking about this problem, fully recognizing that it 25X1A is a political problem and not a problem for this Agency). [] said he was 25X1A a classmate of Congressman Sikes at the University of Georgia. During our 25X1A hour and a half session, he followed Sikes' suggestion that he speak with us 25X1A just as if he were speaking with his good friend Sikes. [] appeared to have 25X1A complete confidence in []'s understanding of the situation in Cuba and 25X1A at the end of our session it appeared that [] had achieved what he had set 25X1A out to do: (1) at least attempt to assist his secretary and (2) obtain a knowl-
25X1A edgeable and sympathetic audience for his views. (See []'s Memo-25X1A randum for the Record.)

25X1A 8. (Confidential - PLC) Col. Ginsberg, in the office of Admiral
25X1A Moorer, Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff, called requesting any information
25X1A in Agency files concerning [] a reporter who had written a 25X1A story from Hanoi as to effects of American bombing. The information was 25X1A to be included in a reply by the Joint Chiefs to an inquiry from Senator Hartke.
25X1A Col. Ginsberg had made this request initially with DIA; however, the CIA 25X1A analyst referred the inquiry to Legislative Counsel in view of the congressional 25X1A interest. [] CRS, informed me that there is limited information
25X1A which is classified concerning []
25X1A [] which can be released to the Joint Chiefs. I subsequently 25X1A called Col. Ginsberg. However, he declined the information as he felt it 25X1A better to deal with Senator Hartke on an unclassified basis.
